REPUBLIC SPECIAL
Lebanon, Ill., Nov. 3.—The old town of Lebanon has acarcely ever had such a political demonstration as that which marked the closing meeting of the campaign held by the Democrats to-night. The Republicans were surprised and worried, the Democrats enthusiastic and eager.

The meeting began this afternoon when Jehu Baker of Belleville, the venerable ex-Republican and member of Congress from this district, and J. Nick Petrin of this place, addressed a crowd on the Public Square, appealing to the voters to stand Square, appealing to the voters to stand by the traditions and Institutions of the country by supporting Bryan and the Democratic candidates next Tuesday. It was not till night, however, that things broke loose. The main street of the town was beautifully decorated with flags and the portraits of the Democratic candidates and portraits of the Democratic candidates and portraits of the Democratic candidates in the state of the town was beautifully decorated with flags and the portraits of the Democratic candidates next Tuesday. The speech of Kansas City spoke to a large and enthusiastic meeting of Democrats in this city to-night, the dealt with the questions before the people, and his speech was well received. He spoke largely on trusts and im-portraits of the Democratic Cananaces ambilliantly lighted with all kinds of artistic lights.

A splendid procession started from the square and moved through the principal streets of the town to the opera-house, where the meeting was held. The most magnificent display or fireworks ever seen in Lebanon lighted up the procession and the main parts of the town.

The parade consisted of horsemen and footmen and conspicuous in it was the Bryan Students' Club of McKendree College in carriages, shouting their college and Bryan yells. An enormous crowd was assembled at the opera-house. W. Duff Piercy of this place presided at the meeting and spoke briefly on the question or imperialism, after which he introduced Fred J. Kern of Believille, candidate for Congress in the Twenty-first District, who addressed the audience for an hour and a half. He handled the Philippine question in detail, discussing every phase of the problem, declaring that the Filippines cremitited to liberty and the right to govern themselves. He pointed out the dangers of militarism and discussed the trusts. He said that the Democratic party in this campaign is arrayed on the side of organized labor, against government by hijunction, against the blacklist, for arbitration, and for giving to the working and producing masses representation in the President's Cabinet.

Meeting at Harugari Hall. One of the largest meetings of the end of the campaign will be held in Harugari Hall, the campaign will be held in Haragari Hall, Tenth and Carr strests, to-night under the auspices of the Hebrew voters of the Third Fourth and Fifteenth wards. Among the speakers will be Moses N. Sale, Montague Punch, Tom L. Cannon, Doctor F. Bougher, Harry R. Hawes and Thomas L. Anderson, The Jefferson Club stereopticon will also be on exhibition, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Pacis, Nov. 3.—(Copyright, 1900, by W. R. Hearst.)—Emilie Zola, asked if the Dreyfus case will be reopened, replied to-day:
"Of course it will be when the exhibition is over. 'Murder will out' sooner or later, it is bound to come, whatever the Senate, the army and the Pope may do or say.

"Annesty forsooth! Who in the world could bury this business in oblivion before it has run its natural course? Dreyfus and his friends are not likely to be oblivious of their natural rights until justice is done. The only people who want the matter laid aside and forgotten are those who are interested in keeping light under a bushel.

"If Waldeck-Rousseau thinks he can put out the fire by a vote for oblivion, he is mistaken. There is only one way of ending the matter, and that is a fair, open trial. The innocence of Dreyfus can be proved whenever the proper means of doing so are taken by men not afraid of the truth.

"The Dreyfus case is purely judicial and has nothing whatever to do with our religious or social conditions. The people who made capital out of Dreyfus are men who wanted to upset the republican regime."
